

Emma Anderson Memorial Chapel presents its

2018 Lenten Luncheon Speaker Series

Come hear what a millennial, a musician, a member of a rapid response team, a married couple and a ministries manager say the Cross means to them!

February 20 • Hunter Bell, millennial

Hunter Bell was born and raised in Fayetteville, N.C. He holds a bachelor's degree in sport administration from the University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill. He was the Chapel's Summer Youth Minister 2016-2017 and provided fun-filled, Christ-centered experiences for participants.

Hunter is currently job hunting in community relations/events for the sports industry and organizing the 6th Annual Maxwell Family 3 On 3 Basketball Tournament in Fayetteville, a memorial fundraiser to provide athletic scholarships for church youth. This event has been one of his big passions during the last few years. In his free time he enjoys basketball, water skiing, and playing the violin.

*MENU: Fried Chicken, Green Beans, Potato Salad, Roll

February 27 • Vaughan Penn, musician

"Vaughan Penn is one of the most genuinely talented and prolific singer/songwriters I've ever known. Her ability to craft a meaningful song and deliver it with her signature emotive vocal style sets her apart from all the rest" — Kevin Edelman, composer and television series music supervisor

Vaughan, a North Carolina Americana singer-songwriter, has penned music that has been placed over 155 times in film and television, including on Grey's Anatomy, Bones, Criminal Minds, and NCIS LA. She has headlined her own shows as well as opened for many well-known acts including Emmy Lou Harris, Darius Rucker and Huey Lewis. She's also performed live on Good Morning America with Chynna Phillips.

*MENU: Chicken Salad Wrap, Tuna Salad Wrap, Macaroni Salad, Pickles

March 6 • Freddie King, member of a rapid response team

Freddie King, a North Carolina native, lives full time in Topsail Beach. She has served in many capacities at Emma Anderson Memorial Chapel, including traveling on mission trips to Guatemala and Belize. She currently chairs the Ushers Committee. Freddie loves cycling, hunting, fly fishing, skiing and playing pickleball.

A few years ago Freddie felt called to join the chaplaincy program that was developed by the Billy Graham Evangelistic Association after 9/11 "to share Christ in the midst of crisis and disasters". These volunteer chaplains are carefully selected and trained to demonstrate the compassion of Jesus Christ and share God's hope with victims of disasters and first responders. Freddie was deployed twice in 2017.

*MENU: BBQ Pork, Slaw, Baked Beans, Roll

March 13 • Lisa and Lance, married couple

Lance and Lisa currently are based in Wilmington, N.C., but will be returning overseas in July 2018. They moved to the Middle East in 2001 to serve the Lord by using their ministry and medical skills to care for the needs of those impacted by war and poverty. During the last 16 years, they have had opportunities to see God at work in a region of the world where you don't often hear good stories. Lance, EAMC's 1995 Summer Youth Minister, is familiar to many.

They have three daughters ages 14, 12, and 11. Lance and Lisa have used their time stateside to pursue advanced education in their respective fields of work.

*MENU: Sloppy Joes, Marinated Slaw, Chips, Pickles

March 20 • Becky Spell-Vann, ministries manager

Becky grew up on a farm in eastern North Carolina, worked in her family's country store and loved going to church. After graduating from Methodist College, she married Tim Spell, moved to Clinton, N.C., had two sons and taught school for more than 30 years. She owns and manages two ministries— a Christian daycare called The Learning Center, and Tim's Gifts, Inc.

She writes a weekly "good news" column for the Sampson Independent. In 2011 she wrote Rise Up, Recount Love, in which she shares her revelations of love as the foundation for nearly everything in life. When she finds free time, she enjoys relaxing and reflecting at her cottage in Topsail Beach.

*MENU: Fried Chicken, Green Beans, Potato Salad, Roll

Plus homemade desserts provided by talented EAMC bakers!*
